

COLLEGE HILL DOCTORS PRIVACY STATEMENT – IPP3A Update 1st May 2026
46 College Hill, Freemans Bay, Auckland
USE AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Your privacy and confidentiality will be fully respected. This fact sheet sets out why we collect your information and how that information will be used.

Purpose

We collect your health information to provide a record of care. This helps you receive quality treatment and care when you need it.

We also collect your health information to help:

- keep you and others safe
- plan and fund health services
- carry out authorised research
- train healthcare professionals
- prepare and publish statistics
- improve government services
- population health and quality improvement
- sending reminders or recalls as appropriate

We also collect or receive your health information from third parties so that we could provide fully informed appropriate clinical care to you.

Confidentiality and information sharing

Your privacy and the confidentiality of your information is really important to us.

- Your health practitioner will record relevant information from your consultation in your notes.
- Your health information will be shared with others involved in your healthcare and with other agencies with your consent, or if authorised by law.
- You don't have to share your health information, however, withholding it may affect the quality of care you receive. Talk to your health practitioner if you have any concerns.
- You have the right to know where your information is kept, who has access rights, and, if the system has audit log capability, who has viewed or updated your information.
- Your information will be kept securely to prevent unauthorised access.

Information quality

We're required to keep your information accurate, up-to-date and relevant for your treatment and care.

Right to access and correct

You have the right to access and correct your health information.

- You have the right to see and request a copy of your health information. You don't have to explain why you're requesting that information, but may be required to provide proof of your identity. If you request a second copy of that information within 12 months, you may have to pay an administration fee.
- You can ask for health information about you to be corrected. Practice staff should provide you with reasonable assistance. If your healthcare provider chooses not to change that information, you can have this noted on your file.

Many practices now offer a patient portal, which allows you to view some of your practice health records online. Ask your practice if they're offering a portal so you can register.

Use of your health information

Examples of how your health information is used is outlined below:

If your practice is contracted to a Primary Health Organisation (PHO), the PHO may use your information for clinical and administrative purposes including obtaining subsidised funding for you.

- Some health information we collect and generate is stored electronically by cloud service providers located in Australia. This information may also be processed (but not stored) by these providers in other countries. The information is encrypted at all times and these providers comply with internationally recognised security standards.
- Your District Health Board (DHB) uses your information to provide treatment and care, and to improve the quality of its services.
- A clinical audit may be conducted by a qualified health practitioner to review the quality of services provided to you. They may also view health records if the audit involves checking on health matters.
- When you choose to register in a health programme (eg immunisation or breast screening), relevant information may be shared with other health agencies or providers.
- The Ministry of Health uses your demographic information to assign a unique number to you on the National Health Index (NHI). This NHI number will help identify you when you use health services.
- The Ministry of Health holds health information to measure how well health services are delivered and to plan and fund future health services. Auditors may occasionally conduct financial audits of your health practitioner. The auditors may review your records and may contact you to check that you received those services.
- Notification of births and deaths to the Births, Deaths and Marriages register may be performed electronically to streamline a person's interactions with government.

Research

Your health information may be used in research approved by an ethics committee or when it has had identifying details removed.

- Research which may directly or indirectly identify you can only be published if the researcher has previously obtained your consent and the study has received ethics approval.
- Under the law, you are not required to give consent to the use of your health information if it's for unpublished research or statistical purposes, or if it's published in a way that doesn't identify you.

Complaints

It's OK to complain if you're not happy with the way your health information is collected or used.

Talk to your healthcare provider in the first instance. If you are still unhappy with the response you can call the Office of the Privacy Commissioner toll-free on 0800 803 909, as they can investigate this further.

For further information

Further detail in regard to the matters discussed in this fact sheet can be found on the Ministry of Health website at <http://www.health.govt.nz/your-health/services-and-support/health-care-services/sharing-your-health-information>.

IPP3A Update 1st May 2026: By accepting health care services from us, you agree we can collect information about you from other agencies for the purpose of maintaining an up-to-date health record and providing safe and quality primary health care. This may include:

From other health providers and shared health records:

- Receipt of laboratory, radiology or other results
- Accessing authorised national or regional health information systems (such as Testsafe) to support your care by checking your referrals, appointments, medical history, laboratory or radiology results and current prescribing.
- Receipt of correspondence from hospitals, emergency departments, urgent care or after-hours providers, telehealth providers, other GPs, specialist services, allied health providers (including but not limited to physiotherapists, podiatrists, optometrists, audiologists, pharmacists, and paramedics), Clinical Research Facilities, or other secondary and community care providers (including but not limited to Healthline, Age Concern, district nursing, Plunket, Hepatitis Foundation etc) – including discharge summaries, outpatient or specialist letters, or other written or telephone correspondence.
- Proactively contacting a hospital or specialist service or other agencies involved in your care to follow up on a referral or seek advice or an update on your care, where that contact results in information about you being shared with us
- Receipt of letters from screening programmes (such as bowel, breast or cervical screening), including results, or notifications regarding attendance or non-attendance. We may also proactively contact screening programmes to enquire about missing results to obtain them.

From non-health agencies and organisations

- Contact from or correspondence with Police, legal representatives, Oranga Tamariki, insurance companies, health data exchange experts used by insurance companies, Ministry of Social Development (Work and Income New Zealand) and the Accident Compensation Corporation and ACC Accredited Employer Programme (AEP) agent.
- Receipt of correspondence from employers, regarding, for example, fitness to work
- Information from the New Zealand Police regarding firearms licences

Complaints

If concerns are raised about the care or services we provide, we may disclose relevant health information to our regulators, insurers, indemnity providers, or legal advisers for the purpose of managing and responding to the concerns.
